

Dan Malasky

*United States Tennis Association
Representing Orange County*

A progressive and established business minded attorney in the sports and entertainment industry, Dan Malasky has recently been appointed as General Counsel and Managing Director of Business Affairs for the USTA's new USTA National Campus, the "Home of American Tennis". In this role, Malasky will help lead the new 102 court, 64 acre, state of the art tennis complex located within the Lake Nona community in Orlando, Florida touted as the largest tennis facility in the world.

In addition to his new responsibilities at the Home of American Tennis, Malasky manages the USTA's day-to-day legal affairs for the largest annually attended sporting event in the world, the US Open, as well as the U.S. Davis and Fed Cup teams, USTA's participation in the Olympic Games, Pan Am Games, and World Team Cup. Additionally, Malasky is responsible for all legal matters for the USTA's elite player development program including its three National Training Centers around the country.

Prior to joining the USTA in 2006, Malasky served as Senior Vice President & General Counsel of DIRT MotorSports, the largest sanctioning body for dirt track auto racing and owner of the World of Outlaws. He went to DIRT MotorSports in 2004 following several years as a commercial litigator at Piper Rudnick LLP (now DLA Piper) in his hometown of Washington, D.C. Malasky also worked for Washington Sports & Entertainment, Aspen Skiing Company, and SportsPro Management prior to attending law school.

Malasky graduated with honors from the University of Pennsylvania with a major in Political Science and a concentration in Management from the Wharton School of Business. He attained his J.D. from Boston University School of Law where Malasky was honored as an Edward F. Hennessey Scholar.

In 2012, Malasky was honored with the prestigious "Rising Stars – Forty Under Forty" award from The Business Counsel of Westchester, NY. Malasky is a member of the Florida, New York, Maryland and D.C. Bars and is active with the Association of Corporate Counsel and Sports Lawyers Association.

Malasky will be relocating to Windermere, Florida with his wife, Desi, and two daughters, Aspen and Brecka, following the 2015 US Open.
